INDIAN INSTITUTE FOR HUMAN SETTLEMENTS

JOB DESCRIPTION

Associate – Media Lab

About Us

The Indian Institute for Human Settlements (IIHS) is a national education institution committed to the equitable, sustainable and efficient transformation of Indian settlements.

IIHS aims to establish an independently funded and managed distinct national university of eminence focused on the challenges and opportunities of India's urban transition. The proposed IIHS University will be a unique and distinct institution that will host quality campus-based education and cutting-edge research and innovation. The university will have a strong interdisciplinary orientation bringing together India-centric knowledge and applied research that also engages with, and draws from, knowledge across the globe.

For more information, please see <http://www.iihs.co.in>

About the IIHS Media Lab

The IIHS Media Lab is a platform that engages with questions around the urban via multiple media practices. The Media Lab's vision is to build a culture of research, teaching and pedagogy using the audio-visual medium inside and outside the classroom. In a rapidly changing complex world, the Media Lab has created a space where the use of images and sound can be a way of understanding the urban milieu and creating new forms of knowledge production. This is in keeping with the mission of the proposed IIHS University of being an interdisciplinary institution where different disciplinary methods are used to address urban challenges.

Job Description

The Media Lab associate will work with the IIHS Media Lab team in all its activities, which includes shooting, editing and teaching.

This could be either a regular position or a 11- month contractual engagement, renewable on mutual consent, with the potential to turn into a regular position over time.

Activities and Tasks

Responsibilities would include, but not be limited to, the following:

- Shooting various public events, filming and documenting events as required using DSLR/Video Cameras;
- Editing content using Adobe / DaVinci Resolve ecosystem;
- Handling production of various film projects as needed;
- Working on the annual Urban Lens Film Festival, the flagship event of the Media Lab, to reflect the idea of cities through multiple media practices;
- Working on media-related aspects of IIHS's Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs);
- Assisting with teaching on the Urban Fellows Programme (UFP);
- Contributing to research and writing as relevant to IIHS requirements;
- Providing support to other IIHS activities including academics, research, practice, training, operations and others;
- Participating in all activities of Institution-Building at IIHS; carrying out tasks as assigned by IIHS; and traveling on IIHS work within or outside the country as and when needed.

Structure and Reporting

The associate will report to the Lead - Media Lab at IIHS or to any other person designated by the Lead, and will be required to collaborate effectively with a diverse group of internal teams and external individuals/organizations, and students.

Person Specification

The ideal candidate should:

- Have a Master's degree (or equivalent) in Mass Communication or a related field with at least 2-3 years of work experience;
- Be adept with video shooting and in different formats (DSLR / Video camera);
- Be skilled with video editing and different formats (Adobe Premiere / DaVinci Resolve);
- Possess moderately good Adobe Photoshop and Adobe After Effects skills;
- Have a working knowledge of MS office applications;
- Be an effective team player with good interpersonal skills and the ability to work with diverse teams across IIHS;
- Have good communication skills – listening, speaking and writing;
- Be proactive and self-driven, with the ability to take initiative as needed.

This could be either a regular position or a 11- month contractual engagement, renewable on mutual consent, with the potential to turn into a regular position over time.

This offer is on an exclusive basis, which implies that other professional assignments (whether compensated or not) that bear a potential conflict of interest with IIHS cannot be undertaken.

The search will remain open until the position is filled.

Location

This position is based in Bengaluru and may entail travel to other locations in India.

Review and Assessment

The role and performance of the incumbent shall be subject to normal review and assessment systems at IIHS.

Diversity Policy

IIHS is an equal opportunity employer that encourages women, people with disabilities and those from economically and socially excluded communities with the requisite skills and qualifications to apply for positions.
